

Unit 6: Promote Equality, Diversity and Inclusion in the Workplace

Unit reference number: T/506/1820

QCF level: 3

Credit value: 3

Guided learning hours: 15

Unit type: Competence

Unit summary

As the working population of the UK changes, it becomes more important that businesses promote equality, diversity and inclusion in their workplaces.

In this unit you will look at the differing aspects of equality, diversity and inclusion, the law that protects employees from discrimination and harassment and the effects of this legislation on the organisational policies and practices. You will gain an understanding not only of the differences between equality, diversity and inclusion but also how they impact on the organisation as a whole, and, as the workforce diversifies to include older workers and an increasing number of people from differing cultures, backgrounds and ethnic minorities how everyone in the workplace must contribute to its promotion. You will understand the importance in today's workplace of being an employee that behaves in a way that supports inclusion, and will be able to support equality, diversity and inclusion in the business, ensuring both legal and moral duties are covered.

Learning outcomes and assessment criteria

Assessment

This unit is internally assessed. To pass this unit the evidence that the learner presents for assessment must demonstrate that they have met the required standard specified in the learning outcomes and assessment criteria and the requirements of the Assessment Strategy.

To ensure that the assessment tasks and activities enable learners to produce valid, sufficient, authentic and appropriate evidence that meets the assessment criteria, centres should apply the Unit Assessment guidance and the requirements of the Assessment Strategy below.

Wherever possible, centres should adopt a holistic approach to assessing the units in the qualification. This gives the assessment process greater rigour and minimises repetition, time and the burden of assessment on all parties involved in the process.

Unit assessment requirements

This unit must be assessed in the workplace in accordance with Skills CFA Business Administration, Customer Service and Management and Leadership Assessment Strategy in Annexe A. Simulation is not allowed for this unit. All evidence of occupational competence should be generated through performance under workplace conditions; this includes evidence of achievement for knowledge-based learning outcomes and associated assessment criteria.

Unit assessment guidance

This guidance supports assessors in making decisions about how best to assess each unit and the evidence needed to meet the assessment requirements of the unit. Centres can adapt the guidance for learners and the particular assessment context, as appropriate.

There are opportunities to assess this unit holistically with the following unit:

Principles of People Management.

The main sources of evidence to meet learning outcome 3 are a review of the learner's work products, professional discussion and witness testimony. The learner's work products could include evidence of communications to colleagues regarding their responsibilities for equality, diversity and inclusion, for example, sent emails, presentation slides etc. (AC3.1). Work products could also include documents detailing the potential issues relating to equality, diversity and inclusion in the workplace; this may be the learner's review notes, a formal report, email or presentation slides (AC3.2). These work products should be reviewed by the assessor to confirm that they meet the requirements of the assessment criteria and could be used to support the professional discussion to evidence the learner's underpinning knowledge and understanding. For example, the learner could explain the different responsibilities for equality, diversity and inclusion in the workplace (AC3.1) and how they ensured that they acted within the organisations policy and procedures and the legal and ethical requirements when supporting equality, diversity and inclusion in their workplace (AC3.3). Witness testimony from colleagues or line manager could also be used to provide supporting evidence for these assessment criteria.

Evidence to confirm the achievement of learning outcomes 1 and 2 could be integrated into the professional discussion for learning outcome 3, providing the opportunity for the learner to link and apply their knowledge to the workplace activities. For example, the learner could be asked to explain how they used their understanding of AC1.2 and AC2.2 to identify the potential issues in their workplace (AC3.2). The learner's responses to meet the assessment criteria in learning outcomes 1 and 2 must be at a sufficient depth and breadth to meet the level of demand of the operative verbs. For example, the learner's response on explaining the impact of equality, diversity and inclusion across organisational policy (AC1.2) should go beyond just identifying the different areas that has been affected but should also include reasons why these particular areas are affected and examples of the impact in practice.

Evidence of Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) can also be used within the unit to confirm competence.
