

Solutions

● ● ● work-based learning

Intermediate Apprenticeship for the Early Years Practitioner

Theme Four – Support the Planning and Delivery of Activities, Purposeful Play Opportunities
And Education Programmes

Links to:

EYP 7: Support the planning and delivery of activities, purposeful play opportunities and educational programmes

EYP 8: Promote play in an Early Years Setting

EYP 9: Support well-being of babies and young children for healthy lifestyles

EYP 10: Support babies and young children to be physically active

Learner study guide

Describe the key stages in the observation, assessment and planning cycle for the child

the parents/carers

the Early Years Setting in planning the next steps

Explain the value of observation for:

the child

the parents/carers

the Early Years Setting in planning the next steps

Identify different observation methods and why they are used

 Notes: Links to Theme 6: Child Development

Method 1:

How is this used?

Why is this used?

When is this used?

Method 2:

How is this used?

Why is this used?

When is this used?

Method 3:

How is this used?

Why is this used?

When is this used?

Describe the reasons for tracking children's progress

Describe how to refer any concerns you may have about a baby or child's development and who you would refer them to

Links to Theme 6/EYP 5 Understand how to support children's development

 Notes:

Explain the reasons why children's development may not follow the expected pattern

 Notes:

Links to:

EYP 5: Understand how to support children's development

Theme 8/EYP 11: Support the needs of babies and young children with Special Educational Needs and Disability

Explain how different types of interventions can promote positive outcomes for children where development is not following the expected pattern

Assess the importance of early identification of speech, language and communication delays and disorders and the potential risks of late recognition

Explain how play and activities are used to encourage speech and language skills